A woman with dark hair, wearing a grey t-shirt, is smiling from behind a service counter. The counter is part of a kiosk with a glass display case containing several sandwiches. To the left, a white sign with the word 'KAHUNA' in blue letters is mounted on the wall. In the background, a black sign above a glass door reads 'COLD DRINKS'. The kiosk is situated on a building with light-colored horizontal siding. A black cross-shaped graphic is in the top left corner.
